June 2013 Issue

The June newsletter is coming to you in July... It seems the summer blues spilled into June and completely took over our data management centers... The team efforts however prevailed, and we come to you in July hoping to see you again at the end of July, on the onset of another fight with the summer blues... The headline for this newsletter is: AMSI signs an MOU with Dubai Healthcare City - DHCC, marking their willingness to cooperate to put together an academic program that feeds into the Dubai's much needed hunger for students oriented around the medical field... Read More

AMSI Alumni

They say that children live what you've always dreamed to be in the future. Dreams you may have const Read More

Hassan Galadari, MD

High Blood Pressure And Computer Modeling

Computer simulations show that Maigh blood pressure can be entirely explained by arterial stiffening as w

AMSI Students in MUN New York

AMSI students were chosen at Mora mbassadors to attend The 14th Annual Global Classrooms: International Classrooms in the 14th Annual Global Classrooms in the 14th Annual Global Classrooms in the 14th Annual Global Classrooms.

Summer Learning Activities

Now that the summer vacation is imple into the long, hot, and lazy sum

الروبوط المنزلي

يتوقع الخبراء أن تبلغ مبيعات روبوطات المنازل حوالي 15 مليار دولار بحلول العام 2015. وهذا التطور في صناعة الروبوطات تعود أهم أسبابه الى توفر أجهزة إستشعار مختلفة وكاميرات قوية بأسعار مقبولة...

اقرأ المزيد

AMSI E-Services

In this day in age, technology that come so advanced and easy to use. In order to keep up with the fa

AMSI and its schools are proud bid supporters of the Dubai Expo 2020. Click here for more information.