

October 2013 Issue

34 years ago, a chance meeting at an evening majlis in Dubai brought two strong minds together... Their passion for education and investment in youth gave way to what would happen next... On October 10th, 1979... Al Mawakeb School was born... So much has happened since then, and there is still so much more to look forward to but today, we look back upon the past and pay homage to those who have been there all along... To you the parents... one of the hardest things to do is to entrust your children to others' care... Read More
