AMSI is the leading provider of education solutions in the region. Widely heralded for our successes in the field of ICT integration into the mainstream educational processes, our primary focus is the expansion of our existing and successful models of Al Mawakeb School and the International School of Arts and Sciences. We are strategically poised to partner with potential investors and developers who share our passion and vision in ensuring the highest quality of education for students K-12.