

Representing AMSI at the ground-breaking ceremony of DISD new campus located in Dubai Academic City, CEO, Mr. Adonis Nasr said that AMSI has over three decades of experience in education sector and its expertise lies in academic solutions. He added that AMSI represents a global perspective of leading education systems from around the world, and he hopes that students will benefit from its vast and in depth knowledge.

The new school is a collaboration between the Board of the German School and Sharaf Group. “We are extremely happy to collaborate with the board members of the German International School of Dubai (DISD), said Major General Sharafuddin Sharaf, Sharaf Group Vice Chairman. “This initiative is in line with the vision of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid, who recently launched the UAE Vision 2021, which aims to strengthen the nation’s knowledge-economy, through collaborative education based on innovation and the best utilisation of modern technology.”